U.S. Funds Expected To Enforce Air Rules

HEW Agent to Meet GC
Officials on $25,000
Enforcement Allotment

A representative of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare is expected to meet here in about a week with Granite City Air Pollution Board officials to prepare a new application for federal funds to be used in expanding enforcement facilities, the city's clean air board was informed in its meeting Monday night.

Prof. Erwin Hoelscher, acting technical secretary of the Granite City board, said he had been informed that federal funds were now available through new appropriations and that Granite City's chances of obtaining a grant of from $25,000 to $30,000 are excellent. He said he had conferred with federal representatives by telephone and that a representative of the department would be in Granite City within a week.

The Granite City Air Pollution board sought government aid last December in a grant application for $25,000 to be used in establishing an enforcement staff, installing laboratory and monitoring equipment and otherwise extending facilities to enforce the city's air pollution ordinance. At that time, however, the government said no funds for such grants were available.

To Match Local Funds
The federal grant would be matched dollar-for-dollar with local funds, Prof. Hoelscher said. The board members also discussed creation of the new Engineering Advisory Committee. Henry Bienenick, chairman of the board, pointed out a suggestion from the Manufacturers' Association of the Tri-Cities that its Air and Water Quality committee make up the advisory committee, was not acceptable under terms of the air pollution ordinance which requires that a member of the Air Pollution board be the chairman of the advisory committee.

Board member Sidney Womack suggested that perhaps the members could serve on both the advisory committee and the board, and said he would discuss the matter with the Manufacturers' Association, of which he is a board member.

Prof. Hoelscher reported that a system of permits and fees for installation and operation of air pollution abatement equipment is being worked out and will be completed soon. Theodore Macios, vice-chairman of the board, reported on the APCA convention which he attended in Cleveland, Ohio, earlier this year.

In response to a request from the high school Social Science class for a speaker on air pollution, board member Dr. George T. Wilkins agreed to speak to

Vocational Education In Venice Proposed

Schools to Seek State Aid for Equipment and Instructors at Lincoln

Within the next several months, Lincoln school in Venice may become the largest state-financed vocational education center in southern Illinois, with training available to many Madison county residents, it was disclosed this week.

Preliminary approval for development of an extensive vocational program already has been voiced by officials in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Illinois Department of Public Aid. They have authorized the Venice board of education to proceed immediately with preparation of a program plan for submission to state authorities as quickly as possible.

At Monday night's meeting of the Venice school board, Michael E. Leatherman Jr., president, reported the results of two conferences in Springfield which he attended with officials of the two schools John O. Pier.

Relating that reaction by Springfield officials was "highly favorable" to establishment of a vocational training program here, Leatherman told other board members. "The state people were very interested and appeared anxious to get something started in this region along these lines."

"The Venice school district has a suitable building (Lincoln school) available for such an extensive project," the board president said, adding that it can also qualify on the basis of the economic level and the need for vocational training.

He pointed out that similar vocational programs have been proposed for other areas, but in many instances a lack of facilities proved a stumbling block.

Major Program Possible
"Three such training centers are located in the Chicago area and one in Eldorado," Leatherman said. "The latter program, started two years ago with an annual budget of $30,000, has grown to a project with a yearly appropriation of $300,000."

"We were given the impression in Springfield that the right type of vocational program here could possibly exceed that figure."

He said that segments of the program most easily discussed, such as drafting, blueprint reading, typing, bookkeeping and similar subjects.

State funds would finance the bulk of the program. All the equipment used in the vocational program. In addition, salaries of teachers and expenses of janitorial services and building utilities required in connection with the program would be paid from the state appropriation, he added.

Supt. Pier informed board members that conferences are being initiated with representatives of firms manufacturing the equipment needed for establishing machine, welding and automotive repair shops.

Apply Next Month
"We need their advice to find out exactly the best type of equipment to install. All this information must be included in the program application," he said. That segments of the program most easily discussed, such as drafting, blueprint reading and commercial sewing, could be submitted for state action as early as mid-October.

"We hope to get our applications into the state for the shop and industrial arts programs by early January," Pier commented. "As the various courses are set

'Yule Mail Call' Response Begins

Two brothers, one serving in Vietnam and the other in Germany, became the first local servicemen whose names and addresses were submitted for inclusion in "Yule Mail Call," a Christmas service being offered by the Press-Record for the second year.

Announcement that the newspaper will again publish the names and address of Quad-City servicemen and women was made in Monday's issue. The names will appear in Press-Record issues as they become available, starting in October.

Early Tuesday morning, M. G. Reinhardt of the Reinhardt Agency brought into the Press-Record office the names and addresses of his two sons, Pfc Michael D. Reinhardt, who is stationed at Prum, Germany, and Pfc Richard C. Reinhardt, serving with the Fourth Infantry Division near the northern borders of South Vietnam.

Just two hours later, a third serviceman's name arrived by mail sent by his fiancée who resides in Glen Carbon. The preliminary service is open to all Quad-Cityans and Press-Record readers. Last year more than 300 names and addresses of military personnel were published.

Purpose of "Yule Mail Call" is to enable individual Quad-Cityans, members of service and church groups and other organizations to send Christmas greeting cards, letters, or packages to the servicemen of their choice.

Persons wishing to include a serviceman on the list are asked to mail the serviceman's name, service number and current address, including APO and FPO when applicable, to Yule Mail Call, Press-Record, 1401 Madison avenue, or bring the information on a slip of paper to the newspaper office.

Collinsville Asks Jury Trial of Nameoki Suit

The city of Collinsville has requested a jury trial of a suit filed against the municipality by Nameoki township in an effort to collect street repair fees.
A trial date on the township claim for payment of $468 by Collinsville has not yet been scheduled in magistrate's court in Edwardsville, but is expected to be docketed soon.
The suit grows out of street repair work done by the Nameoki township highway department after Collinsville had ditched several blocks of West Point and Fairway streets in State Park place last October to repair water lines.
Charles Hanks, Nameoki township high way commissioner, charged the Collinsville street department did such a faulty job of refilling the ditches that his highway department had to do extensive work to repair the streets. An itemized bill for labor and materials was sent to Collinsville officials who refused to pay it, claiming it was excessive.

Funds Invested by Venice Schools

Venice school board members voted Monday night to continue a practice of investing school district funds in 30-day government time certificates to obtain additional revenue.

By resolution, the board authorized for investment $175,000 from the educational fund; $125,000, working cash fund; $30,000 bonds and interest fund; $10,000 building fund; and $4000, junior college tuition fund.

Supt. John O. Pier said the investment of junior college funds will provide sufficient interest to pay tuition costs of two Venice students.

A recommendation by C. J. Schlosser, school district auditor, to increase the school treasurer's bond from $250,000 to $650,000 was approved by the board.

Purchase of sheet music for the school band was authorized from Strude Music Co. of St. Louis on a low bid of $177.

The superintendent was asked to make further contact with local auto dealers relating to use of a vehicle for the driver education program.

Supt. Pier informed the board that initial inquiries disclosed that several firms, which previously loaned machines to school districts, were reluctant to commit themselves at present due to the current auto strike.

Assistant Supt. Robert N. Vickers reported recent approval of a state grant, amounting to $1489, to finance a special education program for unachievers in primary grade levels.

He said that during the project's initial year, the fund will finance an "in-service" training program for teachers, substitute teachers and materials.

Vickers pointed out that additional training is considered necessary, as specialized teaching methods are required to deal with under-achieving youngsters.

Board members agreed to send representatives to an educators conference Sept. 26 at the Mineral Springs Hotel, Alton.

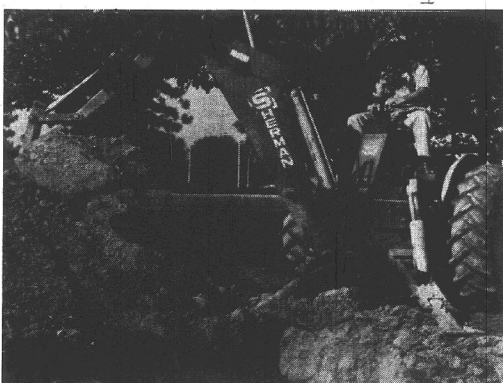

No objections were voiced to a proposal by Venice high school senior class members who sought permission to sponsor a public barbecue sale this Saturday and Sunday and again Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 at the American Legion grounds on Broadway.

Venice Schools Bill List Totals $34,971

Bills authorized for payment Monday night by the Venice school board amounted to $34,971 of which $21,297 represented payments from the educational fund and $3764 from the building fund.

Included in the payments from the educational fund were $2070 withholding-tax; $2419, MacMillan Co., text books; $613, Illinois Reading Service, library books; $247, Model Publishing & School Supply Co., supplies; $653, McGraw-Hill Co., text books; $1221, Houghton Mifflin Co., books; $2320, Triangle Typewriter & Supplies, typewriters; $1641, Sub Music Co., band instruments; $592, Berrien Bindery, books rebound; $1449, Illinois Power Co., lights and gas, June, July and August; $331, East St. Louis Interurban Water Co., water service for same three month period; $395, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., service; $538, Moore-Cottrell Subscription Agency, magazine order; and $1069, East St. Louis School district and and $616, Bethalto Community schools, tuition for two special education students.

The building fund bills included $1777, Fijan-Maers Agency, insurance on buildings and contents; $381, Holland Asphalt Pav-

District Hospitals Entrance Exam Scheduled Evaluate Laundries For Coast Guard Academy At Meeting Here

Representative Melvin Price announced Tuesday that the annual competition for entrance to the U. S. Coast Guard Academy will begin with the Dec. 2 administration of the College Entrance Examination Board tests.

These examinations will be given in over 3000 test centers. Arrangements to take the CEEB examination should be made by the applicant through his school prior to Oct. 28. Completed Coast Guard application forms must be received at the Academy by Dec. 15.

Congressman Price emphasized the opportunity offered qualified young men who choose this four-year course which leads to a commission as a career officer in America's oldest continuous seagoing Armed Service and a Bachelor of Science degree.

"Appointments are made on a competitive basis; there are no separate quotas for States or Districts and no special categories,"

As a result of the meeting St. Elizabeth Hospital has decided to use the cart system for laundry distribution instead of the present method of making prepared packs, Sister M. Thomas said.

The study to determine more economical and efficient laundry operations was made by Jerry Reifschneider, a district administrative services of the American Hospital Association.

Results were presented by Miss Tina Lovelace of the AHA, who noted that District 9 hospitals are operating more efficiently than other Illinois hospitals.

She attributed the efficiency to superior techniques acquired through years of education and experience and keeping up with modern laundry operations.

Sister M. Thomas pointed out that Michael Gulash, director of laundry operations at the local hospital, has studied under the St. Louis Association of Institutional Laundry Managers, and has brought about several money saving techniques.

Merits of centralized laundry service and hospital owned laundries were evaluated by the group along with the use of disposals in a laundry operation.

Steam Pipes at Alton State in Third Phase

Rehabilitation of the tunnel piping system at Alton State Hospital is in its third phase and will take about a year to complete, James Hilary, chief engineer, reported today.

Underground tunnels from the power house to buildings on the grounds supply high and low pressure steam and hot water. High pressure steam is used for sanitation purposes and the low pressure lines for heating the entire institution.

The first phase was completed in 1963 and the second in 1965. As contractors finish the third phase, all new piping will complete the rehabilitation of the hospital's tunnel piping system, Hilary said.

All of the old lines became deteriorated over the hospital's 50 year span and replacement was imperative, he said. The new piping is being replaced with continuous welded lines containing expansion loops which should give no maintenance problems as experienced in the past, Hilary added.

Contractors are Wueller-Mann of Alton, electrical and general; Thomas Fleming of Alton, piping; and Ratkin Insulation Co. of St. Louis, pipe covering.

Disagreement Over Scope Of County Clean Air Law

A Madison county air pollution ordinance would have jurisdiction over municipalities in the county, according to State's Atty. Gen. G. Scroggins, who said he will prepare a written legal opinion to that effect for the air pollution committee of the county board of supervisors by Monday.

He is in disagreement with Illinois Atty. Gen. William G. Clark, who has provided an opinion that county ordinances cannot apply in municipalities unless the cities lose their certificate of exemptions from the state.

Scroggins pointed out that Granite City is the only municipality within the county to have an air pollution control program and that it does not hold a certificate of exemption from state air control laws.

He told the committee Monday night that the question has never been decided in court, and that lawyers often disagree on legal questions.

Scroggins has drafted an air pollution control ordinance for the county which is under study by the committee. Its members feel that if the county ordinance would not have jurisdiction over cities, it would be useless to adopt a county law as most industries are located within cities.

The committee also discussed briefly an environmental control law which would encompass health, air and water pollution control, solid waste and sewage disposal, water supplies and recreational facilities.

George Arnold of the department of public administration and public affairs at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus, told the committee that such a program would make more federal funds available to the county.

He was asked to provide an already adopted environmental health law for study by the committee, as the one now in effect in St. Louis county. Arnold assisted Scroggins in preparing the air pollution ordinance.

NEIGHBORS REUNITED

Several former residents of Venice assembled as a group for the first time in over 20 years Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Hadley, 1328 Rob in street.

Hadley's three brothers, Lee of West Allis, Wis., Norval "Chuck" of Seattle, Wash., and Ray of Granite City, visited with Hadley and with Henry Smith, now of St. Charles, Mo.

The two families were neighbors for several years prior to World War II, when all of them went off to either Army or Navy service. Subsequent years found them going their separate ways and only occasionally getting together, a couple at a time.

A highlight of the occasion was the family dinner prepared by and served in the home of Miss Nancy Hadley, 1328 Robin street. She is the daughter of Lee Hadley.

State officers and chairmen of various committees will hold departmental meetings this afternoon, continuing the sessions tomorrow on such topics as "Citizenships and International Relations," "Dare to Care About Cultural Arts," "Plain Talk About the Exceptional Child," "The Modern Mother and the Difficult Child," and "Creating the Climate for Mental Health."

R. Buckminster Fuller, distinguished scientist, designer of the geodesic dome and research professor at SIU, will deliver a guest speech on "Educational Revolution Ahead" this evening.

Mrs. Wanda Sherman, Mrs. Katy Waters and those mentioned.

The group will be held in the home of Mrs. Wanda Sherman, 2016 Edgewood avenue, Oct. 9.

Battle of Young Teas as Warriors Visit Cahokia to Begin Season

Granite City at Cahokia

Cahokia and Granite City, two of the fastest growing communities in this region, will wage football war at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow on the Cahokia gridiron as both high school teams inaugurate their 1967 seasons. Whether the population explosion in the two districts will produce equally explosive football pyrotechnics is uncertain because both the Warriors and Comanches have comparatively young and inexperienced squads. Opening their 47th season, their first with Jim Morrison at the helm, the Fighting Warriors with several notable exceptions have had to be content with only average season records against powerful Northwestern Conference foes during the past two decades. The newer school in Cahokia began as a dormitory to Madison in its early years in the Midwestern Conference but progressed to the role of perennial champion, aided by the largest enrollment in the league. Now, in its final season as a member of the Midwestern, the Cahokia squad is being coached by Gene Muzzarelli, assistant to Pete Turan until the latter's departure after ten years at the end of the 1966-67 school year. Next season, the Comanches will play an independent schedule against large schools.

Second Meeting of Teams
The two clubs have met only once, last season, when the Comanches won 19-0 as a prelude to an undefeated Midwestern championship and a 7-2 overall record. GCHS placed sixth in the Northwestern Conference and the Southwest Conference and finished as a dormitory to Madison in its early years in the Mid-clean slate, and both schools are reasonably optimistic despite a lack of numerous experienced players. Each team boasts plentiful talent, despite the fact that much of it yet is untested in varsity competition. Cahokia has ten lettermen back, many of them substitutes last season. The name mentioned most frequently in connection with the Comanches is Halfback Nathaniel "Skip" Bailey, a 165-pound senior.

Line Depth Cahokia Weakens
Muzzarelli, who had charge of the Cahokia defense as assistant coach, plans to retain the school's "monster" defense and wing-T offense but may not have the team run as much as in the past. He pinpoints depth in the line as the biggest problem. Building on a continuity of coaching that is relatively unprecedented at GCHS, which has had 13 head football coaches since 1921, Morrison is hopeful that grooming of young players at the high school and junior high levels will begin producing consistently strong varsity teams.

He is convinced that many schools in this region with losing records are not actually ineffective, but merely seem so because the general caliber of football in this area is so strong compared to other sections of the U.S.

With only 11 of 27 lettermen returning from the 1966 campaign, the current squad is bolstered by 16 other boys with experience just short of what would have qualified them for letters.

Intense Competition
There has been strong competition for starting positions, including a duel for quarterback between Dave Snelson, a senior, and Roger Belshe, a junior. Belshe will handle placekicking, and punters are Ron Laws and Russ Borth.

Laws and John Hommert are Mike Doherty, Gary Kunnemann, Jim Johnson and Jim McCart. The injury list numbers in the 20's. Doherty, a guard, was hurt by a knee. Center Dennis Huebner, out indefinitely with a knee injury, and End Terry Cooke, out for the season with a leg fracture.

Each team will play a ten-game schedule, with the last league games played in the first week of November and the playoffs a week later.

Games will be played on Friday and Saturday whenever possible, but there will be a few times when teams will be asked to play early in the week. No Friday games will be played when the Granite City high school Warriors are playing at their home field the same night. Teams may be more evenly matched this fall because of new rules governing the age of players. In the past, teams have been formed based on grade in school, but now they are matched by age.

The age groups are: eight and nine-year-olds, called the Ron Hall league; 10 and 11-year-olds, the Ken Gray league; and 12 and 13-year-olds, the Joe Robb League.

Twenty teams and managers are registered with the park district this far.

The Ron Hall League has four teams: the Stars, managed by Walt Wilson, Redskins, managed by Spangler; Bowler Trucking, Bill Hodge and Bill Osborn; and Burger Chef, Glenn Davis and Bob Patrick.

The Ken Gray League is divided into two divisions with five teams in each. In the Century Division, the teams regarded as strongest in competition are: Red Barn, managed by Carl Harrison; Granite City Culvert Rans, Mike Sues; Bowler Trucking, Bill Hodge and Bill Osborn; Eagles, Sam Lucas; and L&W Movers, Charles Braton.

Capitol Division teams are: Bert's Chuck Wagon, managed by Ray Hoffman; Midwest Floor, Chris Van Nida; Packers, Mike Harris; Kline's Interiors, Bob Littlejohn; and Petrillo Produce, Bruce Thompson.

The Joe Robb League has six teams: Packers, managed by Mike Harris; Green Construction, Ernest Dumas; McDonald's, Walter Milman; L&W Movers, Bill Lehman; Eagles, Gene Reinhardt; and the Spartans.

Trojans Open New Season Friday Against New Team, O'Fallon

It was near the end of the "roaring 20s" when the first Madison high school football team took the field. Tomorrow at 8 p.m. the MIS gridiron will be the scene of another debut—that of O'Fallon high.

Last year, the O'Fallon Panthers showed strength in a schedule limited entirely to junior varsity opponents.

This year, they are moving up to varsity competition for the first time, fielding a starting squad of nine juniors and two sophomores.

Trojan Coaching Debut
Madison's Trojans also have a "first" for their 39th football season—a new coach, Harlan Schiebel.

Brand new, too, will be emphasis on a "pro offense" passing attack and on as much physicality as is permitted by the size of the local squad.

The Trojans' 1967 schedule also includes two other schools playing varsity football for the first time, Triad of the Troy area and Mater Dei of Breese. However, despite their players' inexperience, the coaches of all three new teams are approaching the season with confidence that they will be justified.

Coach Bob Scates of O'Fallon has put together a nine-game schedule that includes the other two newcomers, Triad and Mater Dei, plus Madison of the Midwestern Conference, Mount Olive and Perryville, Mo. Rounding out the list are clashes with the junior varsity teams of Belleville, Alton, Gillespie and two Southwest Conference schools, East St. Louis and Belleville West.

Rapid Turnover on Team
With Scott Air Force Base families providing a many of the O'Fallon players, there is an almost continual turnover that has added to the difficulty of creating an entirely new team.

Fortunately for the Panthers, some of the newcomers have had grid experience elsewhere. "I scheduled teams with which I thought we could compete. I feel we'll be at least somewhat competitive," Scates comments.

Heavy O'Fallon Line
O'Fallon need not be embarrassed by the size of its players. The Panthers on offense will outweigh the Trojans in the line averaging 192 pounds to Madison's 182. The Trojan backfield averages 168 pounds a player, compared to O'Fallon's 155.

Coach Schiebel has named Jim Scott, a 5' 9", 145-pound junior, as his starting quarterback.

Biggest man in the Madison backfield is Titus Shipp, 6' 1", a 180-pound senior who also will see service as a defensive linebacker.

Twin Aerial Targets
When Shipp is not carrying the ball, Scott is expected to unleash passes to either Tom Weston, 6' 2", 175-pound senior, the starting right halfback, or Joe Collins, 6' 2", 180, senior, the Trojans' right end. Collins also will be a defensive end.

Other defensive stalwarts are expected to be Bert Armour, a senior tackle who is 5' 11" tall and weighs 220 pounds, and another tackle, John Harper, 6' 1", a 180-pound junior. The returning lettersmen include Armour, Collins, Shipp, Weston, Keith Williams, 190-pound senior end, Terry Brake, 150-pound senior halfback, Tackle Dennis Holt, Center Bill Campbell and Guards Louis Crook and Terry Stawar.

Speed, Height, New Plays
Having lost 14 lettermen through graduation and most of its big line of 1966, Madison may see its forward wall pushed around a bit more than last season. But the Trojans hope to offset this with speedy runs and passes.

The height of Ends Collins and Williams, the proficiency shown by Scott and the outstanding play of Shipp and Armour are being counted on heavily as the Trojans adjust to their new systems of offensive and defensive plays.

Pistol Tournament
Planned Saturday

The John N. Marshall Gun Club will sponsor an 1800 pistol tournament Saturday at the club grounds.

The first relay, 22-caliber, will be held at 8 a.m. and the second relay, also 22-caliber, at 9 a.m. Center fire will follow, and there will be post entries.

Trophies and gift certificates will be awarded to the winners. More information is available from Don Ballard, TR 7-3538.

May Ask Study of Inter-City League Fan Control

The Sacred Heart baseball team is not a "quitter," but it was 10 to 4 in favor of Pocahontas this week to end a controversy in which the mood of the crowd was leading to avoid any further trouble. After tough play and the threat of violence.

Discussing the game later, Manager Donald Crabtree told the Press-Record that many of the fans were drinking and failed to remain a normal distance from the playing field.

There were frequent calls of "hit the batter" and "run over the shortstop," and the possibility of rioting and injuries developed with requests to "pass out the bats," Crabtree related.

His recollections follow: "There were five or six incidents in which the fans became unruly and went onto the field, delaying the game as much as 15 minutes at a time while objecting to decisions of the umpires that went against Pocahontas. "We finally walked off the field when one of the base runners ran into our catcher and the fans swarmed onto the field again. This was in the last half of the seventh inning when the score was 10 to 4 in favor of Pocahontas. "The umpires were unable to control the situation, and we decided not to finish the game to avoid any further trouble. After that a free-for-all developed, with players on both teams trying to stop the fans from piling onto our centerfielder.

"We may suggest a special league meeting to find a way to prevent future occurrences of this type.

"The incidents included the Pocahtas manager shoving one of the umpires, players throwing the bat against the backstop when they struck out, one player being kicked out and later allowed to return to the game, and another case in which a runner tried to hurt our catcher.

"The crowd should have been warned that the game would be forfeited about the third or fourth inning."

The 138 million veterans of world war 1 range from about 65 to more than 85 years of age. Their average age is 73, according to the Veterans Administration. This was in the last half of the

State Gives Advice To Teal Hunters

A word of caution was issued to 10,000 sportsmen who have the special permit required for hunting teal. "Make sure it's a teal before you shoot," is the advice from William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation.

The teal season will begin on Saturday, Sept. 16, and end on Sunday, Sept. 24. Four teal may be taken in one day and eight retained in possession, except that on the first day of the season only four teal may be kept in possession. A valid Illinois hunting license is required for teal hunting and anyone 16 years or older must have a 1967 migratory waterfowl hunting stamp in his possession.

Blue-winged and green-winged teal are common on migrants through Illinois. The cinnamon teal, a western species, is rarely seen by Prairie State waterfowlers.

"This is the last year for the special teal season," Lodge said. "Few teal are bagged during the regular fall duck season because the birds have migrated through Illinois. The purpose of the early season is to give sportsmen an opportunity for more hunting. Unfortunately, some hunters shoot first and look later and ducks other than teal are dropped into the marshes where they rot."

"Identification of the duck in the air is of paramount importance this year because of the decrease in the wood duck population," Lodge explained. "Wood duck numbers are down because of the cool, wet nesting season. The woody nests and rears its broods along all forested Illinois rivers and is a species often shot by mistake during the teal season."

"Whether or not we have future teal seasons may well depend on the hunters' ability to identify ducks in flight and refrain from killing the wrong bird," Lodge concluded.

Thieves Steal

door entering the market. Police reported that an attempt apparently was made to open the safe. Report of the theft was made at 1:35 a.m. Tuesday by Christ L. Stoyanoff, operator of the market, who had been called to the store by a resident of the area.

Items taken included cans of soup, canned meats, cookies and four decks of playing cards.

Thief Plunges Purse

A purse which Mrs. Norma Mirarec, 2541 Benton street, placed inside her doorway while she drove her car into the garage, was taken by a sneak-thief at 10:30 p.m. and its contents in currency and an undetermined amount of change.

Mrs. Mirarec told police she had returned home from bowling and took her bagging bag and purse onto the front porch and placed them inside the front door. She said while she was driving the car into the garage a man wearing light trousers and a blue shirt dashed into the porch, reached inside the door and grabbed the purse and fled.

The purse was found a few minutes later.

An attempted entry at the home of Mrs. Raymond L. Henley, 2540 Cleveland blvd., was averted Monday night when Henley heard a noise and went to investigate. He told police he and his wife were watching television when he heard a sound. He said he turned on several lights and then heard the noise again at the breezeway. He said he found the screen in the breezeway door had been cut. Entry was not gained.

A youth about 18 or 19 years old "tapped" the cash register at Branding's Mobil Service, Niedringhaus avenue and the railroad tracks, and escaped with about $30, according to a report to police at 3:15 p.m. Monday. Henry Jackson, 2840 Harding blvd., told police the youth went into the station while he and an employee were working outside the station.

Tools, Watch Stolen

A tool chest filled with tools and containing a gold wristwatch valued at $70 was stolen from the garage at the rear of the Granite City Boat and Motor Co., 2400 Madison avenue, it was reported to police at 10 p.m. Monday. John Fowler who reported the theft, said the chest was stolen about 2:30 p.m.

A break-in at a vacant house located at 3307 Franklin street was reported to police at 1 p.m. Monday by Edward Lenzi, 3225 Aubrey avenue. A window in the rear of the house and a basement window were broken and a basement door forced open. Nothing was taken, police reported.

Two lawn chairs valued at $3 each were stolen from the front porch of the home of Mrs. Knox, 2412 Delmar avenue, he reported at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday.

An unknown amount of gasoline was siphoned from a 1965 Buick Wildcat of Wood River, an unsuccessful candidate for president of the local who was beaten on a tavern parking lot. Thewatt and two others pleaded guilty to reduced charges of disorderly conduct and was fined $100. A grand jury later refused to indict him on an assault charge.

1964 Auto Stolen

Jack Yates, 2831 East 25th street, reported at 5:10 a.m. Wednesday that his red 1964 Buick was stolen from his home at 5 a.m.

Donald Whitehead, 2713 Cayuga street, reported at 11:10 p.m. Wednesday that his white 1965 two-door auto was stolen from the parking lot at 17th street and Madison avenues.

Eugene Lohr, Edwardsville, reported at 7:20 a.m. today that a battery was stolen from the 1961 auto, the cable was cut and a fender skirt was damaged while the car was parked on the lot at the blast furnace division of Granite City Steel Co.

Robert Snider of the Nameoki garage, 1221 West Ponton road, reported at 7 a.m. Wednesday that a 12-volt battery was stolen from a 1963 auto owned by a customer while it was parked on the garage lot. The battery cable was ruined.

Head Rests Stolen

Two head rests were stolen from the car of Mrs. Charles Lorenz, 1511 Lindell blvd., while the car was parked in front of her home, she reported at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday. The head rests were valued at $20.

Amvets 51 Turkey Shoots To Aid Needy Families

Hoodlum Wrath Cited as Motive For Harder Murder

Vengeance by hoodlum elements of Wood River Carpenters Local 188 is being cited as the motive for the murder of Herman William Harder of Chouteau Slough road, a member of the local, early last Saturday near his home.

Authorities said this week evidence shows that Harder was attempting to oust ex-convicts and hoodlums who were obtaining a strong-hold in the union by exposing their past criminal activities and practices.

One of the local members, Landon Ray "Pug" Fisher, 35, of Rural Route One, and Eugene Dillard Carroll, 35, of 1227 East 22nd street, a mechanic, are charged with the murder and preliminary hearings are scheduled for 11 a.m. Friday in the court of Magistrate Joseph T. Kelleher at Edwardsville. An inquest is pending.

$25,000 Bonds Posted

Both cars at liberty on $25,000 bonds posted by Don Hazel, a Madison core home builder.

Terry Thewatt, an ex-convict residing on Chouteau Slough road near the Harder trailer home, appeared voluntarily Tuesday at the sheriff's office and denied any knowledge of the murder.

He said he had been out of town at the time and that he could not understand why anyone would want to harm his neighbor.

Thewatt, a steward in the union, served a prison term in 1954 for possession of burglary tools.

Union Assault

He was involved in the assault of another union member, Pete Klader of Wood River, an unsuccessful candidate for president of the local who was beaten on a tavern parking lot. Thewatt and two others pleaded guilty to reduced charges of disorderly conduct and was fined $100. A grand jury later refused to indict him on an assault charge.

County authorities and the FBI are still seeking a third suspect in the case. Chief Deputy Sheriff Frank Schmidt complained of stumbling blocks in the investigation as everyone, including neighbors of the Harder's and other union members, are afraid to provide any information in connection with the case.

Harder had operated a small farm along Chouteau road, and members of his family are reportedly planning to move out of the area as soon as possible.

Authorities said they learned that Thewatt was one of the union members that Harder wanted dismissed from the local.

Threat to Cow

Harder was shot three times by shotgun blasts in his chest and arm after being enticed from his home by threats of three men that they were going to shoot his cow. He left the trailer with a shotgun to protect the cow, which had been threatened by shotgun pellets several weeks earlier.

Authorities learned that Harder knew that he may be killed because of his anti-hoodlum activities. Sheriff George Musso had offered him special protection, but he preferred to handle his own troubles.

Efforts are being made to find an envelope prepared by Harder which may contain criminal records of union members.

Reschedule Council Meet

The Venice city council will hold its regular city council meeting Tuesday night instead of on the regularly scheduled meeting date tomorrow. The postponement was agreed upon because several council members had important engagements for the regular meeting night. Only routine business is on the agenda.

Heavy Traffic Impasse Over New Bills Continues

Democratic leaders in the Illinois House of Representatives charged yesterday that the reconvened session of the legislature was "spinning its wheels" and accomplishing nothing.

An impasse between Democratic and Republican members of the House developed immediately after the legislature reconvened Monday, ostensibly to consider vetoes of Illinois legislative measures by Gov. Otto Kerner since adjournment of the General Assembly July 1.

The Republican majority, spearheaded by House Speaker Ralph T. Smith of Alton, affected a ruling prohibiting introduction of new bills during the reconvened session on grounds new bills would extend the session by several months.

On the other hand the Republican majority is not big enough to override any of the governor's vetoes without help of Democratic members.

Two GOP efforts to override vetoes were defeated Tuesday, bringing to four the number of unsuccessful motions in the first two days. These attempts involved the governor's veto of a bill to create a legislative commission to study air pollution, and one to make a technical change in the Mechanic's Lien Act.

Rep. Smith and Rep. Anthony Scarnano (D) Park Forest, exchanged heated words during the Republican policy of refusing to permit new introductions. The House has refused in only one instance, permitting introduction of a bill for $16 million appropriation for the attorney general.

Scarnano said the practice is a "dangerous precedent" and that legislators can't properly represent their districts because of the vetoes.

Smith pointed out that House members have the right to offer a bill but to introduce one with a suspension of the rule requiring 89 votes.

Nine attempts to submit bills, including two more on open housing, were sidetracked by Republicans.

Intent Letters Lagging

Bieneck told the board that on the St. Louis Slag Co. had sent in its letter-of-intent form prior to Monday night, but that he expected others to be received before the deadline tomorrow.

"Mr. Lyle Gulley of Granite City Steel Co. personally assured me a lengthy discussion on the new Granite City (air pollution) regulations that his company's policy is one of cooperation," Bieneck told the board.

The board's decision last August to require the filing of letters-of-intent from Granite City industrial firms was approved and made a part of the record. The letters-of-intent require the firms to declare their sources of air pollution and state what steps are contemplated to eliminate them.

with Building Service Employees and importance of police officers and firemen, was presented at yesterday's Madison Rotary luncheon by Mayor Stephen Maers and Police Chief Emmett Pazia.

The secretaries asked an across-the-board hourly pay in Police Chief Emmett Pazia. In introducing the plan, Mayor Maers urged increasing public education pay for nine-month employees. They listed as an alternative a 71-cent increase with eight days of paid vacation.

Many other parts of a proposed agreement with the newly-organized secretarial group have been worked out, it was reported.

Further negotiations between Local 98 and the administrative staff are set for tonight. The Madison golf meet was set for a strike vote has been taken, with no date specified.

5-Cent Remitting Tax Rate

Voting to certify that it has initiated regular funds to alter and reconstruct schools in compliance with the Illinois Life Safety Code, the board authorized utilization of the five-cent additional tax rate per $100 valuation permitted by the state.

The remodeling has been started in order to avoid or reduce casualties in the event of a major fire. The work must be completed by July 1, 1970.

The board turned down a request for $300 from the Lewis & Clark Education Foundation as part of a remaining debt of $1582 contract in Alton in 1966-67 will be repaid.

Board members will attend a Madison County School Administrators Association meeting at 7 p.m., Sept. 26 in Alton to discuss not legally spend taxes to problems.

The Madison County Baptist Association will use the high school football stadium area Aug. 9-18, 1968, for a regional meeting had been asked to provide.

Deadline Oct. 15 On Sending Dirty Bags to Vietnam

"Dirty bags" for local servicemen in Vietnam must be mailed by Oct. 15 for Christmas distribution, Mrs. Ruby Overbeck, Red Cross executive secretary, stressed at a monthly board meeting of the Tri-City chapter Tuesday at First Granite City National Bank.

She urged that local organizations wishing to prepare and fill the bags contact the Red Cross office, GL 2-7184, where they can obtain detailed suggestions on making the bags and filling them with toothpaste, stationery, etc.

Dorthea Pascoe, a Granite City high school student, reported on the Red Cross youth training camp at Kalamazoo, Mich., in August. Also attending the camp were Barbara Washenko of Madison high school and Marilyn Casuso of Venice high school.

Blood centers are scheduled here every month through next June, it was announced. August sessions will be listed as including $400 financial aid and 177 reports, interviews and contacts.

The right rear fender of a pickup truck driven by Leonard R. Dugan, 2218 Benton street, was struck by an auto driven by Ted J. Hensley, 4055 Lake drive, as both were making right turns from Madison avenue onto Niedringhaus avenue at 8 a.m. today.

Realty, Contracting Firms Incorporated

Paul Powell, Illinois secretary of state, has issued incorporation charters for two Granite City-based companies.

Coach Richard Harmon's Granite City high school cross-country team lost to Belleville 16-41 at Citizens Park in Belleville.

Quick And Easy Company Chicken

Creamed chicken takes on company airs when served in a golden ring of crusty cornbread. One-pot preparation makes quick work of this creamed chicken. The velvety smooth sauce, made with double-rich evaporated milk, is finalized with the mushrooms and other good ingredients. Quick and easy, too, is the golden circle fashioned from a convenient package of corn muffin mix.

Company Creamed Chicken

1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms
1 chicken bouillon cube
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons minced onion
3 tablespoons flour

Drain liquid from mushrooms; add water to measure 1/2 cup liquid if necessary. Heat liquid; dissolve bouillon in it. Melt butter in medium size saucepan; add mushrooms and onion; cook and stir until mushrooms are lightly browned. Remove from heat. Add flour a little at a time, blending smoothly. Stir in salt, pepper, mushroom liquid and evaporated milk. Cook and stir over medium heat until thickened. Add chicken; heat to serving temperature. Serve in Corn Ring. Makes 6 servings.

To make Corn Ring: Prepare a 12-ounce package of corn muffin mix according to package directions, adding 1 teaspoon paprika and 2 tablespoons chopped chives, if desired. Spoon into a well-buttered 4 or 5 cup ring mold. Bake in preheated hot oven (400° F.) 15 minutes.

They visited Daley's mother, Mrs. Daley, and a brother, Richard Daley and his family in Racine, Wis.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry Colquhoun and children entertained the Daleys in their home in Melrose Park, Ill., where he is pastor of a church. He was formerly pastor of First United Presbyterian Church of Madison.

County Offices Are Improved, Auditor Reports

Madison county governmental offices and departments are living within their budgets and means, an auditor told the board of supervisors Tuesday morning at Edwardsville.

In presenting a general review of an outside independent audit for 1966, Guy McCune, auditor for the R. C. Scheffel accounting firm of Alton, noted that no tax anticipation warrants are outstanding, and "this is to be commended."

He also reported that many improvements have been made in many offices during the last several years, but some offices have funds which are difficult to audit.

McCune advised the board, "It would be wise to consider central accounting for all or most of the offices in the county."

He recommended closer care be taken to improve investments of idle funds and control controls over purchasing and expenses, but said conditions of records and accounting systems are greatly improved.

Investment of Funds.
No comments were presented regarding criticism of the offices of the circuit court clerk and the previous sheriff which appeared in the audit report. These involved accounting of expenses and investment of condemnation funds held in escrow.

William Portell, circuit clerk, was in attendance at the meeting prepared to explain the operating procedures and investment policies of his office but decided against initiating the discussion on the floor.

He has discontinued new investments of condemnation funds held in escrow following an agreement by Assistant State's Atty. Gerald McGivern that the practice was illegal. Portell said he is awaiting legal backing from Leon Scroggins, state's attorney. Former Sheriff Barney Fraundorf was not present.

Audit Contract
Carl Buehler, assistant Granite City supervisor, asked why the firm refused to enter a contract stipulating the fee for the audit.

McCune said the company was reluctant to do so as it did not know the amount of time to be required but it may be in a position to do so next year. Buehler noted that St. Clair county contracts with its outside auditing firm each year.

Buehler was concerned about charges to the public. After the discussion, McCune said the cost, last year was $14,267, but that it should be less this year.

Buehler complained that a record of the amount of time the firm spent last year was to be provided to the board but that the company failed to do so. McCune said data on the time spent in this year's work would be available at the next board meeting.

The audit report was approved with a copy ordered sent to the state.

Ella Fitzgerald Signed For SIU Jazz Concert

Ella Fitzgerald, reigning queen of female jazz and pop vocalists, has been signed for a two hour concert Jan. 28 at the SIU Arena, Carbondale, according to Arena manager Dean Justice. She will be accompanied by her own trio. "She is probably the only performer in America today who does a complete show of this length all by herself," Justice said.

cluding Nameoki, $40,325 at .0896 cents plus Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund of $2500; Cloutier, $25,390 at .17 cents; and Venice, $23,141 at .081 cents. Entered into an agreement with the Madison County Housing Authority accepting 10% of rentals of housing projects in lieu of taxes.

Decided to consider establishment of a parks and recreation committee for the county on the motion of Alton Mayor of Alton, who noted that Gov. Kerner had vetoed a $400,000 appropriation for Horseshoe Lake.

William Straube of Edwardsville added that parks could be included in a proposed environmental control board, if provided by the Legislature, which would include water and air pollution and waste disposal.

Approved an addition to its rules requiring new motions from the floor regarding ordinances, changes in government structure and appropriations to be held over until the next meeting.

New Heating Plant
Appropriated $32,000 for a new heating plant for the county jail and courthouse plus $2000 for engineer fees from an unappropriated surplus last fiscal year.

Awarded the following contracts on low bid basis: General Refrigeration & Plumbing Co. of East Alton, $31,940 for the new heating plant; Don Barton Trucking & Excavating Co. of Wood River to pave a parking lot for $2825, with the city of Edwardsville to share the costs; Thomas Ladd of Edwardsville, $545 to repair and replace 404 square feet of sidewalks around the courthouse; and Paul Lawson of Edwardsville, $1364 to paint the county nursing home.

Heard a report from John Maeras, county treasurer, that publication of delinquent lists for 10-year tax sales no longer is required, resulting in a saving to the county which was listed at more than $400 last year.

Revoked the bounty on foxes as the state now is protecting red and gray foxes in Madison county.

Heard reports that the county Tuberculosis Sanitarium had 29 patients on Aug. 31, a decrease of three for the month, and the county nursing home listed an average of 59 patients.

'A-2 Flu Bug' Expected To Hit Hard This Winter

"That time of the year," the winter season with its threats of serious flu outbreaks, isn't very far off.

This year Dr. William H. Stewart, Surgeon General of the U. S. Public Health Service, is rather emphatic about the danger. Flu cases may be expected in "substantial numbers," he warns.

Which flu bug is the bugaboo this time? Much of the trouble is likely to be caused by type A-2, according to Dr. Stewart. Fortunately, people are not defenseless. An improved vaccine has been found effective against disease agent A-2, and promises better protection than any in the past.

P.H.S. officials, meanwhile, urgently suggest that those in need of flu immunization should get it as soon after Oct. 1 as possible. A little time is required for the vaccine to take effect. Who needs immunization? P.H.S. is specific about it: those persons 45 years old and over, and particularly those over 65; those who have a chronic illness; patients in nursing homes, chronic disease hospitals and comparable places; pregnant women.

Persons in any of these groups who have not been immunized against flu since 1963, should have the new vaccine; two injections, a month apart. Persons who have been immunized since July 1963 need only a single booster of the new vaccine.

Madison County Tuberculosis Association, local Christmas Seal organization dedicated to fighting all respiratory diseases, recommends early action to protect against the oncoming flu threat, especially persons in the vulnerable groups.

Nursing Student Earns Honor Roll Rating

Miss Sharon Kunnemann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Kunnemann, 3001 Madison avenue, has achieved honor roll rating on an accumulative grade average at St. Joseph's school of nursing at Alton.

VENICE PARK DISTRICT BUILDING taking shape along Broadway between the public library and Methodist Church. The $146,000 offices-recreation center will include a multi-colored fountain in the octagon-shaped structure which will be the roofed entry.

First Payment on New Venice Park Building Okayed

The Venice park district board in regular meeting Tuesday night approved a first payment of $22,000 for construction of its new offices and recreation center now being built along Broadway between the public library and the Methodist church. The payment was approved for Leo Wolf Construction Co. which holds the contract.

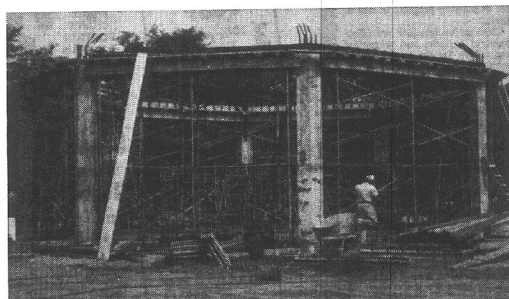

The building, financed by the sale of bonds, will cost $146,000 and will provide offices for the park district, a community hall and recreation area, complete with kitchen facilities and rest rooms. A park board meeting room will adjoin the office area. Entrance will be through an octagon-shaped structure featuring a multi-colored fountain in its center.

Construction work is well above ground and is progressing on schedule. Park Supt. Marion Groshong informed the board. The board also voted Tuesday night to donate a used truck to the Eagle Park Acres group sponsoring a park project in out the district has not been used that area. With the aid of Neighborhood Youth Corps workers Eagle Park will meet a serious and a volunteer organization of need there for maintenance of the new park. Board members discussed plans to attend the annual convention of Illinois park district members in St. Louis Sept. 27, 28 and 29. Venice, along with Granite City, Alton and East St. Louis is co-host to the convention.

To the left of the fountain will be the community room with kitchen facilities and restrooms and on the right will be the park district offices and park board meeting room.

Farm Column

By Warren W. Bundy
Madison County Farm Adviser

A steady fed cattle market and a steady hog market through the rest of this year is how Earl Peterson, Producers Live Stock Marketing Association fieldman, summed up the livestock market outlook situation for the last quarter of this year.

Speaking at the recent Madison county livestock and feed outlook meeting, Peterson forecasts if any market weakness develops this year, it will be in December for fed cattle.

"We see nothing in the picture to make current prices of feeder calves cheaper," said Peterson. "We have more grass than usual for this season, and feeder calves are carrying more weight," he added.

Native steer calves 500 to 500 pounds are selling generally at $25 to $30 per cwt., and similar southwestern calves $29.50 to $31.50 f.o.b., reported Peterson.

Native heifer calves are selling at $25 to $27 per cwt., and southwestern heifer calves at $27.50 to $29 f.o.b.

Native feeder steers 500 to 700 pounds are selling generally at $25 to $28 per cwt., and similar southwestern steers at $26 to $29 f.o.b.

Native steers 700 to 900 pounds are selling generally at $24 to $26 per cwt., and southwestern steers at $25 to $27 f.o.b.

Western feedlots are strong competitors of cornbelt feedlots for southwestern feeder calves, Peterson explained.

M. B. Kirtley, University of Illinois extension specialist in livestock marketing, said at the outlook meeting, "We will have some strength in slaughter steer prices, but I don't see a $30 price in choice slaughter steers in the months ahead."

"So far, boards of trade futures have not been a good predictor of future fed cattle prices. You can use futures market if you want to and if you understand it, to shift risk, but don't use it as a predictor of price," he said.

Kirtley said the big thing about hogs is the much higher level of slaughter now compared with a year ago. We had some strength in the hog market in the spring of 1967, but we think the high rate of slaughter is the reason hogs didn't reach the high point they reached a year ago.

"We will see some strength in hog prices in the future, and prices may move upward in the last quarter of 1967. Estimates of number of hogs on farms and number farrowed indicate lower numbers of hogs to market during the next year, but not much change in price is expected," said Kirtley.

Corn Acreage Up

The feed situation has changed from a year ago. Then we were talking about getting in balance on the feed grain situation. Now, the U. S. corn acreage is up, the average yield will be up about 3 to 4 bushels per acre, so total production of corn will be up.

Aug. 1 estimate of corn production in the U. S. was 4681 million bushels, up 13% over a year ago. Carryover from last year's corn crop is estimated at 500 million bushels. Use and exports next year are estimated at 4300 million bushels. So we estimate a 1282 million bushels carryover of corn next year.

Kirtley believes there will be problems in moving this year's corn crop to market. He suggests that livestock producers who have storage may lay in corn at harvest at a reasonable price.

Corn exports were down the past year. Some increase in exports are expected next year.

Zoyzia for Home Lawns

Some say Zoyzia grass is the homeowner's dream. A lot of observations go with this opinion, but it is a great hot weather grass. Zoyzia is definitely not a front lawn grass because of the winter dormant color. Golden brown grass for six months is not much of a deal for a front lawn.

Low maintenance and wear resistance of zoyzia are ideal features for backyard and service areas where play and summer use is heavy. Once established, Zoyzia (Meyer 2-52 is the recommended strain) can survive intense wear. Even the dormant grass has surprising resistance to playground activities.

Dry weather and low fertility do not harm Meyer Zoyzia as much as bluegrass or fescue. But extra fertilizer will give a fine turf during the summer months. Extra fertilizer and a golf course cut of 1" or less will produce an extra quality turf. A bluegrass cut of two inches or more is not harmful. Spring and fall fertilizing with a lawn fertilizer will maintain good growth and delay color fade in the early fall.

Zoyzia falls our need as a shade grass. It requires full sunlight and warm weather for best performance. For more details on raising Zoyzia, contact your local Cooperative Extension office or Ag Publication Office, 123 Mumfords Hall, Urbana for circular 778, "Zoyzia Grass for Illinois Lawns."

Cannas for Fall

Cannas will make a fine display of growth and flowers during the warm periods of fall. Extra watering will increase your dividends.

Late harvesting is traditional to cash in on the spurs of fall growth. An extra dividend is continued growth of the bulbs and extra size for better growth and more flowers next spring. The first frost will burn down the tops without harming the bulbs.

Preparing the clumps for storage should not include washing away the soil. Leaving a portion of the soil on the clumps will insulate the bulbs from excessive drying. Ideal storage is a dry cool location. Cut off the frost tops before storing.

Football in Bluegrass Lawns

Are you seeing light green grass clumps and flowers during the warm periods of fall? Extra watering will increase your dividends.

Lawn Mower Damaged

Vandals damaged a lawn mower in the yard of Mrs. Maggie Martin, 1622 St. Clair avenue, by running a hole in the gasoline tank, according to a report to police at 4:40 p.m. Monday.

according to Kirtley, but not to the level of where they were two years ago.

The price support of $2.50 (national average) will be the major factor in soybean prices this year, believes Kirtley. He estimates a carryover this year of 386 million bushels, and a carryover next year from now of 120 million bushels of soybeans.

Kirtley believes demand for agricultural products will be about the same next year as the past year. We may have a slight inflationary trend with increases in wages continuing, but not much change in agricultural prices. Net farm income in 1968 will shape up about the same as in 1967, said Kirtley.

Charity Days Festival

Tomorrow, Saturday

Quadr-City residents are being asked to support their favorite charity during the third annual "Charity Days Festival," to be held tomorrow and Saturday at the Nemours Village shopping center.

Seventeen service groups, slated to take part in the two-day benefit project, will occupy decorated booths and offer a variety of items for sale to the public. Booths will be open between 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

Proceeds derived from the event will be retained by the individual organizations and used to support various charitable enterprises.

Scholarships for HS Students

2nd Traffic Safety Essay Contest Opens

The Illinois Editors' Traffic Safety Seminar has announced that ten $500 scholarship grants will be awarded to high school student winners of the Seminar's second annual traffic safety essay contest.

All Illinois high school seniors are eligible to submit essays on the topic "A Driver's License—Right or Privilege?" The original essays are to be 500 words or less and must be submitted to Seminar Headquarters, 66 East South Water street, Chicago, Ill. 60601, postmarked no later than Dec. 31, 1967.

Robert M. Heck, Seminar president and chief editorial writer for the Rockford Morning Star and Register-Republic, pointed out that the 10 scholarship awards are double the number presented last year by the Chicago Motor Club.

Gerald W. Cavanagh, president of the motor club, in authorizing the increase in the scholarship grant, said "The Seminar contest is an intelligent approach to accident prevention because it is encouraging the coming generation of drivers to think about traffic safety. This involvement in traffic safety among the next generation of drivers is essential if we are to reverse our mounting highway death and accident toll."

The Seminar essay contest is open to all Illinois high school seniors and has been endorsed by Ray Page, Illinois superintendent of public instruction; by Al Willis, executive secretary of the Illinois High School Association; and by the various Catholic, Lutheran and Jewish high school officials throughout the state.

There also will be 25 runners-up awards of U. S. Savings Bonds.

Entry blanks will be distributed to all high schools in the state, and additional blanks may be obtained by writing to the Seminar headquarters.

The contest specifies that the 500-words-or-less essay must be original. The student may consult with driver education instructors or English teachers for research advice.

Heck announced that a special Seminar committee headed by Harold E. Hutchings, assistant

New Dodges on Display At Farrington Motors

The 1968 parade of Dodge automobiles, ranging from the second generation—"Charger"—an aerodynamic family-size sports car—to the new lower-priced "Polara" and "Polara 500" models with a 318-cubic-inch engine, is being unveiled today at Farrington Motors, Inc., 1911 Madison avenue.

Dodge is expanding into the lower price market through introduction of the Polars and Polara 500 powered by a smaller 318-cubic-inch engine, while still maintaining their medium-priced position with upgraded Monaco and Monaco 500 models, Donald Z. Farrington, owner of the local Dodge agency, said today.

A new hardtop roof for four-door models highlights the Polara and Monaco line. Unique and separate new grilles, rear end and side appointments add to the high style of the two new cars. While both are new and tastefully executed, both are essentially different, Farrington pointed out.

The 117-inch-wheelbase Charger features a longer, lower hood line and a wind spoiler that is an integral part of the rear deck. For the new year, the two-door hardtop Charger has a special performance model—The Charger R/T (Road and Track).

The R/T model, equipped with the high performance 440-cubic-inch V-8, heavy duty suspension and brakes, dual exhausts and wide tread tires, is accented with wrap-around "bumble bee" stripes, running across the rear deck and down the quarter panels. Standard engine in the Charger is the 318-cubic-inch V-8.

The Coronet has a new look for 1968, including a new two-door coupe with a hardtop roof styling to replace the two-door sedan. Station wagons have wood-grained models this year.

Addition of a new GT Sports model and increased engine availability in the 1968 Dodge Dart are intended to meet the needs and desires of both the compact and the specialty car enthusiasts, Farrington explained. All Dart models retain the 111-inch wheelbase, but offer a choice of six different engines, the agency owner added.

Dodge Truck enters its 51st year by introducing new, high styled "Adventurer" half-ton and three-quarter ton pickups, with profits last year of up to $8 million, and could absorb the loss incurred by operation of the run. The line claimed the Cannon Ball run last year resulted in a loss of $161,534.

The commission suggested the railroad might cut down on accommodations such as parlor cars and dining cars and perhaps use one diesel engine instead of the present two.

1968 POLARA, Dodge's entry in the traditional low price market on display today at Farrington Motors, 1911 Madison avenue. A 318 cu. in. engine is standard on all Polara models as are a host of new safety features. Options include a new speed control unit, stereo tape/radio combination and automatic temperature control.

Wabash Cannon Ball to Run Another 12 Months

The Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington has ruled that the Norfolk & Western Railroad now operator of the Wabash line, must continue to operate the modern version of the "Wabash Cannon Ball"—at least for another twelve months.

The N&W had sought to eliminate the run from St. Louis to Detroit, but the ICC ruled the N&W is sufficiently sound financially, with profits last year of $98 million, and could absorb the loss incurred by operation of the run. The line claimed the Cannon Ball run last year resulted in a loss of $161,534.

The commission suggested the railroad might cut down on accommodations such as parlor cars and dining cars and perhaps use one diesel engine instead of the present two.

Motorists Need to be Extra Watchful for Motorcycles

"Motorcyclists, like little children, should be seen and not heard," Raymond Christman, president of the Quad-City Safety Council, pointed out today.

A study shows that the major reason why so many motorcycles are involved in crashes with autos, is that the auto driver doesn't see the oncoming cycle in time, Christman noted. "Motorcycles move along the road at the same speed as autos, yet they are much smaller and easily overlooked, especially at intersections," the local safety official said.

Based on records kept by insurance firms, two of three automobile collisions occur in instances where the auto driver said he did not see the oncoming cycle in time to avoid the crash.

Other statistics show that in about two of three crashes, the auto was making a left turn, crossing in front of or into the path of the oncoming motorcycle.

Two-thirds of the accidents occurred during the daylight hours, and the other third was split between dusk and darkness.

More than 90% of the crashes occurred on dry pavement.

One insurance firm, Christman noted, is recommending that motorcycle riders wear an outer garment "shell" and helmet of alternating stripes of fluorescent "traffic orange," which "glows" in daylight, and reflective white for night visibility.

Slight Change in Arch Passenger Schedule

New hours of operation for Bi-State's passenger transportation system in the Gateway Arch are effective this week.

The new hours are—Monday through Friday—Noon to 9 p.m. (No change).

Saturdays and Sundays—10 a.m. to 10 p.m. (No change). This is a change in the weekday closing time from 10 to 9 p.m., and reduces the operating time from 10 to 9 hours per day. Sale of tickets will be suspended each night as necessary in order to permit all passengers having tickets and in line to be transported to the top of the Arch one-half hour prior to closing.

Experience to date indicates that some people do not understand that the ride to the top of the Arch requires a minimum round trip of about 20 minutes, counting viewing time, and therefore, it is essential that the last full load go up at not later than one-half hour before the announced time of closing. Col. R. Smyser, executive director, explained.

Due to reduction of visitors since Labor Day, it is now much more convenient to take a ride to the top of the Arch. Time required to purchase a ticket and obtain a ride is generally less than one hour and frequently the wait is only 10 to 20 minutes.

SIU-SW Classes To Explain U.S. Laws, Programs

Southern Illinois University and the Department of Housing and Urban Development will collaborate on a lecture series beginning this fall at the southwestern campus.

Designed primarily to acquaint local government officials with federal programs, the training also is geared for students and others wanting to know more about federal agencies, especially HUD.

Scheduled Oct. 17 through May 7, 1968, the 14 classes will meet approximately every two weeks in the Peck Classrooms Building for two to three hours. Lecturers will include regional and national HUD officials from Chicago and Washington.

Among the national figures will be Arthur Tackman, HUD's director of personnel; Arthur Ross, special assistant to Assistant Secretary Donald Hummel; Kent Watkins, staff assistant to Secretary Norman Beckman, director of inter-governmental relations and urban program coordinator; and Wayne Phillips, director of the Division of Public Affairs.

Dean Pieper, special assistant to HUD's regional administrator in Chicago, who also will teach two sessions, said most of the lecturers will cover such topics as civil rights legislation and achievement, the total scope of the federal community assistance programs and model neighborhood programs and approaches.

Officially called Lecture Series in Social Science, the program is open to both graduate and undergraduate students, municipal officials and employees and other interested persons at no cost. One to three hours' academic credit is available through application.

Pieper said the studies will help clarify federal and local relationships as well as serve as an enticement for recruiting graduates into government.

Interested persons may obtain further information by calling SIU program coordinators Norman C. Johnson and Mel Kaczek at 692-2440 and 692-3620.

October Draft Quota-4 Men; No PE Scheduled

The Quad-Cities' draft quota for October will be for four men to report Oct. 20 for armed forces induction. Notification of the lower quota for October was received this week at the county selective service office in Edwardsville.

The county office also was advised there will be no quota for pre-induction physical examinations next month. The pre-draft call for 41 local men this month was cancelled due to a lack of funds. Congress is expected to provide funds for pre-induction calls in November.

The October draft quota is one of the lowest this year. So far, 83 local youths have been drafted this year from the Quad-Cities, compared to 132 youths in the first nine months of 1966.

The quotas this year for the local area have included—six men in January, three in February, 10 in March, two in April, nine in May, 13 in June, 18 in July, 18 in August and eight in September.

Foreign Trade Will Aid Expansion of S. Illinois Industry

The importance of foreign trade to the economic well being of Illinois was stressed Tuesday evening by Gene Graves, director of the Department of Business and Economic Development for the state who was guest speaker at the fourth annual "World Affairs" dinner given by the SIU Liaison committee of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

Graves stressed to the 80 persons present for the dinner meeting at the Granite City Army Depot officers club that data will be available from his office in about three weeks to aid manufacturers of southern Illinois in getting into the foreign market.

Howard Kaseberg, C. of C. president, introduced the speaker.

Detailed data on the types of consumer products needed and the costs for doing business overseas will be included in the report.

Growth of Area Certain

The state official painted a bright picture for economic growth in southern Illinois, pointing out the added prospects for foreign trade with the development of the Kaskaskia waterway and the potential of industrial growth along the Chain of Rocks Canal here.

"Opportunities abound for Illinois agricultural producers and processors, manufacturers, business and professional men are in the Illinois economy is clear virtually unlimited. Total world trade is rapidly approaching a volume of $200 billion annually.

"A number of Illinois firms have sold abroad for as long as 100 years, some have just begun to test markets outside the U. S. and others do not actually compete in foreign trade. Less than 15% of the state's manufacturers have measurable export sales. A gain of only a few percentage points would mean a multi-million dollar addition to the gross of Illinois," Graves pointed out.

He noted that combined sales of agricultural and manufactured products overseas puts Illinois in the role of the nation's leading export state.

Illinois' Exports

Graves said it is estimated that the value of Illinois products sold abroad last year totaled $2.7 billion, which is about $180 million higher than in 1965, and approximately 9% of total U. S. exports.

"With agricultural exports principally soy beans and feed grains, of $666 million in the fiscal year 1965-66, Illinois ranked first in foreign trade with the development of the Kaskaskia waterway and the potential of industrial growth along the Chain of Rocks Canal here.

"The vital role of foreign trade in the Illinois economy is clear from all available evidence . . . since the production of crops for export now requires about 42,000 full-time workers or about one out of every six employed on Illinois farms.

"The crops from one out of every four acres harvested in the state are exported.

600,000 Related Jobs

"When the jobs of Illinois workers in industry and services are added, at least 600,000 persons can relate their livelihoods to export sales. Because of the special handling and services required by foreign trade, it is estimated by economists that the employment multiplier ranges from 3-4. On that basis, more than two million workers derive an important part of their income from export trade," he related.

Graves emphasized that Illinois is the transportation center of the United States. "It is the only state with a dual waterway link to the Atlantic Ocean via the St. Lawrence Seaway system and to the Gulf of Mexico through the Midwest network of rivers.

"The seaport of Chicago, the world's No. One inland seaport, is playing an increasing part in the international trade of Illinois and the Midwest. Overseas tonnage through the port in 1966 with 17½ higher than in 1965, reaching 3.25 million tons of export-import cargo."

Graves said that in 1963, world trade amounted to $82.8 billion, of which the U. S. exports totaled $15.7 billion or 19%. Ten years later in 1963, total world trade was $153.7 billion with U. S. exports accounting for $23.1 billion, or 15%.

"While our exports had grown substantially, our share of the market had declined. In 1966, however, world trade amounted to $160.5 billion with the U. S. having 18.6% of the total. This more recent upsurge served to raise the average annual increase in our exports over the entire 13-year period to 5.1%.

World Trade Increasing

"It has been estimated by private and governmental agencies that world trade could increase in the next ten years to a total of $255 billion. This would represent an average increase each year of 3.2%—a rate easily within our reach. The experts estimate that by 1967, U. S. exports might reach $46 billion. This would be 18% of the world's total and about 53% more than our exports last year.

"There is," Graves continued, "ample opportunity in the future for those having the enterprise to exploit it. None has done more aggressively or more successfully than the businessmen of the American middle west."

"Within 300 miles of Chicago, about one-third of the total exports of the U. S. are generated. The shipments come from an area encompassing more than 32 million people living in six Great Lakes states. This is over one-sixth of the total population of the nation.

"These six states—Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Michigan, and Wisconsin—employed personal income last year of almost $104 billion, 18% of the nation's total. Their per capita income average over $3200 against the national average of $2400—and in Illinois, it was $3511."

"These same states employ 18% of the nation's nonfarm labor force, and in 17% of America's factories they produce 23% of the nation's value added by manufacturing. Together they exceed any other similar area of the world in production, consumption and income.

Illinois is Leader

"Within this great inland empire, Illinois is the leader in almost everything industrial and agricultural, and in the dollar value of exports, it is the top state in the nation.

"How is this possible for an area over a thousand miles from salt water? Just look at our superb geographical location, our strategic position astride the only connecting link between the Great Lakes and the Mississippi River system; our highly diversified industrial complex; and our location in the agricultural heartland of the world."

Graves said all this became possible because of Chicago and its location as "the hub from which the spokes of commerce and industry radiate into the farthest corners of the world."

He noted that with the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway in 1959, Chicago became a major world port, with 90% of cargo ships of the world now able to sail into Chicago.

Graves predicted the Midwest soon will be developed with major research facilities, and said that the junior college system will be needed to fill the growing need for skilled workers.

He added that the state probably will provide higher education for industrial and vocational training.

To further expand the state's foreign trade, which has increased markedly since the first trade mission to Europe in 1963

CALIFORNIA SINGING TOUR has been completed by the "His Three" trio. Left to right are Misses Beverly Vaughn, Karren Shelton and Carole Starling of the First Assembly of God. They will sing at the local church Sunday evening.

Trio, Back from Tour, Will Sing Here Sunday

"His Three," Beverly Vaughn, Karren Shelton and Carol Starling, who have just completed a singing tour of California, will present a public program here Sunday evening. On tour with the trio were Rev. and Mrs. Don L. Stover, minister of music and youth at First Assembly of God Church; they accompanied the trio on piano and organ.

"His Three" began their tour of concerts in Long Beach, moving north to sing in Los Angeles, Bakersfield, Redding, Fresno and the San Francisco area.

The trio has been singing together for two years and has made many guest appearances throughout Illinois and the metropolitan area, but the August-September trip was their first extended singing tour.

The trio will be featured along with the Sanctuary Choir, this Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in its home church, First Assembly of God, 24th street and Grand avenue. Rev. J. Boyd Wolverten, pastor has announced.

and the second to the Far East in 1965, the state is to open a foreign office in Belgium in an effort to attract foreign flagships into the Chicago port. Graves told the group.

There's a lot of difference between your health insurance and your auto insurance. Neither of them are much like your fire or life insurance.

O-O-O-O-H! Mr. WIMPLE

DID YOU SEE

THE GLEAMING WHITE COTTAGE on a corner lot that's loaded with shrubbery and trees that looks like a private park—drive in attached garage—hop out through the breezeway where the kids are watching TV and scoot right down the basement into the private den or workshop—oversized bedrooms allow Kingsize furniture—the financing is no problem with $900.00.

THE EXCITEMENT OF A FAMILY ESTATE—That's right—live on the bluffs and enjoy this—full basement that's divided with drive-in garage, Mom's private laundry room, kitchen and play room—carpeted living room, hallway, bedrooms, and even the closets—spacious kitchen with built-in oven and range in matching copper-tone with double bowl sink—children can run all day and Mom need not worry about heavy traffic.

A NEWLYWEDS WISE INVESTMENT—your friends will marvel at your smart move in buying, rather than renting—a small down payment and reasonable monthly payments give one security and easy living in the 2 bedroom bungalow, that has a separate TV room (excuse me, guest room)—When you want to treat the in-laws to your holiday cooking, there's no problem with all the space in the kitchen—The rest of the smart styling awaits the new bride's eyes.

THE EASY BREATHING OF NO STEPS in this ranch would make any Mother want to cook Dad's special meals everyday—skipping from the three bedrooms where the closets are large. Mom will breeze through her housework—especially when her washer and dryer are set in their special alcove right off the kitchen—the all purpose room made for kids, ironing, private den, or what have you. Almost new, this brick is available for immediate possession—incidentally there's a double car garage also attached.

BY THE WAY MR. WIMPLE, . . . call . . .

Entertainment, Orientation for SIU-SW Students

Discussions covering virtually every aspect of campus life will be combined with some entertainment Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 18-19, when more than 900 students gather at the Southern Illinois University for freshman orientation.

Assisting with the program will be 86 student orientation leaders from upper classes who have been especially trained for the event. Their functions come under the auspices of the New Student Orientation Committee headed by students Janet Welle and Dick Chamberlain, both of Collinsville.

Although tailored primarily for new freshmen, the program also gives attention to freshmen who started during the summer and students transferring from other universities.

SIU President Delyrie Morris will deliver the welcoming address at 9 a.m. Monday immediately after registration. Other student and faculty speakers are scheduled to follow throughout the day and the next day until 4 p.m.

Policies, Clubs, Counseling
Subjects to be covered are campus values, inspired by a book of that title, the university theater program, manners and dress, university organizations, Air Force ROTC, student government, counseling and testing, campus policies, university social and instrumental programs, study skills, and intramural and sports clubs.

Some of the topics will be discussed in small student groups led by the student orientation leaders.

The University Center Food Service will prepare roast ox over open barbecue pits Monday evening for the newcomers at the Tower Lake recreation area. Activities such as softball, badminton and canoeing also will be offered at the picnic.

Lecturer and entertainer Russell Curry of Boston, Mass., will add a touch of humor when he presents a lively discussion of new and old campus trends at 1 p.m. Monday in the University Center ballroom.

Builders Club Sunday To Be Observed

Sunday will be observed as Builders Club Sunday throughout Methodist Churches of southern Illinois, Washington Memorial Methodist Church will observe the day by enlisting members of the congregation who will be willing to contribute $1 each month for the cause of Church Extension during the coming year.

This special program has made possible more than $200,000 each year for the Church Extension efforts of Southern Illinois Methodist during the past few years.

In the morning worship services, at 8:30 and 10:40, Rev. R. Paul Sims will preach on the theme, "Judge Not." This will be the seventh sermon in a series on the Sermon on the Mount. In the absence of the associate minister, Rev. Dean Blackburn, Rev. Sims will also deliver the children's sermon in the 10:40 worship service.

The Youth Choir will sing the anthem for the 8:30 service, and the Chancel Choir will sing in the later service. Both choirs are directed by Warren G. Simpkins. Mrs. Simpkins will be the soloist of the pipe organ.

In the evening worship hour at 7:30, the minister will speak on the theme, "The Gracious Gift of God" following a period of hymn singing. The service will conclude with prayers at the altar.

Nicholas Veeder Re-Elected Head of RIDC

Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman of the board and president of Granite City Steel Co., was re-elected to his second term as president of the St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Corporation yesterday at the second annual RIDC board meeting in St. Louis.

The board also elected Paul Alkin, president of Laclede Steel Co., as one of seven new executive committee members. Howard Lee Young, president of American Zinc Co., was elected chairman of the RIDC board of directors and of the executive committee. He succeeds Dr. George E. Pake, executive vice-chancellor and provost of Washington University, who will remain active on the executive board.

RIDC, set up in 1964 to spearhead research and development necessary to attracting new business and industry to the area, made major progress during the past year in achieving four key priorities, Dr. Pake told the directors during the meeting.

These were, he said, improvement of the labor-management image of the region; improving the opportunities for financing new business ventures, especially research and development-oriented enterprises; development of the RIDC list of prospects, particularly among auto parts makers, who might be persuaded to establish new facilities here, and evaluation of the supply and demand factors of the region's labor market.

Major Step Forward

Dr. Pake pointed out that a major step toward improvement of the labor-management climate was taken last week with formation of LAMP—Labor and Management Plan—in which equal representation of labor and management, balanced on both sides of the river, will sit down together to solve problems between labor and management.

He also noted that establishment of St. Louis Venture Capital, Inc., a development credit corporation that will help finance engineering and scientific entrepreneurs, has been formally proposed.

The corporation hopes to raise $4 million in venture capital through sales of debentures and stock to be used to finance engineering and scientific entrepreneurs with practical ideas for new products, processes and services, who would locate their operations in the bi-state region.

Veeder emphasized in his remarks to the board that these RIDC missions are not only "valid undertakings for an organization whose primary function is to attract new industry," but also that RIDC "is the most logical organization to do the job." Veeder's message was presented in his absence by vice-chairman John H. Berry.

Support of All Segments
"RIDC is, in fact," said Veeder's message, "the only organization that I know of in the metropolitan area that draws its support from all segments—labor, business, government, universities and from all geographic sections of the bi-state area."

"As a result of this unique structure, we have been able to function as a catalyst, to bring together many elements of our community, to coordinate rather than supersede. We have achieved within our RIDC some consensus, by our mere existence. We offer then to the community a voice which can speak for many groups and many geographic divisions of this great metropolitan community."

Reid Ross, executive vice-president of RIDC, after reviewing 1966-67 achievements of the organization, pinpointed four additional areas which he said require study and investigation during the coming year:

These include:
(1). Outmoded rail, river and transportation facilities in the region;
(2). Uncoordinated and unplanned development of port facilities;
(3). Inefficient and expensive waste disposal methods, truck terminal, switching and yard facilities;
(4). Lack of adequate apprenticeship and vocational training programs to train and retain the potential workforce of the region, including the underemployed, unemployed and young people ready to enter the work force.

Freeze Tomato Juice at Home

You'll like home-frozen tomato juice—whether you plan to freeze or can it—remember that the juice is no better than the tomatoes you put into it. Some homemakers use softer tomatoes and trimmings for juice because they expect to strain the juice. This is a bad practice.

A soft tomato is partly spoiled. It will give your juice an inferior flavor. Also, since spoilage has already started, the product will be much harder to sterilize if you plan to can it.

Instead of freezing the juice, you may want to can the tomatoes. A good way to can tomatoes is by the cold-pack method. With this method, you can leave the tomatoes whole after removing skins and cores. Pack them into jars or cans to within one-half inch of top. Add no water. Add one-half teaspoon salt to pint; one teaspoon to quart.

Process pint jars 35 minutes in a boiling water bath; quarts 45 minutes.

Any large vessel will do for a boiling water bath canner if it meets these requirements: It should be deep enough to have at least one inch of water over the top of the jars and an inch or two of extra space for boiling. It should have a snug-fitting cover. And there should be a rack to keep the jars from touching the bottom.

If your steam pressure canner is deep enough, you can use it for the water bath. Set the cover in place without fastening it. Be sure to have the petcock well open so that steam will escape and pressure will not build up.

For laundry that includes durable press garments and synthetics, a little pampering goes a long way towards saving ironing time.

Here are some suggestions on how to get good results with easy-care fabrics and prevent laundry wrinkles:

1. Wash in small loads—big loads can compress garments and wrinkle them.
2. Wash easy-care fabrics often. Don't wait for heavy soil to build up. Fresh soil and stains are easy to remove. The longer the delay in washing the harder it is to get out stains.
3. Pretreat greasy soil with cleaning fluid, full strength liquid detergent or detergent paste. Work detergent into fabric and soak 10 to 15 minutes for color fast fabrics.

RELAXING AT PICNIC, Michael E. Leatherman, Venice school board president, stops for informal chat with Mrs. Margaret Lee, wife of Venice Mayor Lee, Mrs. Hazel Smith, Venice high school home economics teacher, and Mrs. Margaret Butts, biology and general math teacher. Out of a possible 305 Venice school district employees, board members and their dependents, a total of 267 persons attended the successful back-to-school barbecue picnic in Lee Park, Venice.

Venice School Board-Faculty 1st Picnic Held at Lee Park

Venice school board members, together with teachers, office personnel, maintenance and cafeteria employees from the community's three schools, combined forces recently for the school district's first "back-to-school" barbecue picnic at Lee Park in Venice.

The affair was co-sponsored by the Venice board of education and Local 965, American Federation of Teachers.

Describing it as the occasion as "most successful," Michael E. Leatherman, school board president, said Monday, "Everyone appeared to have a good time and the excellent turnout further emphasized the fine working relationship enjoyed between the school board and faculty."

4. Use cool or warm water. If essential to soil removal, you may use hot water for washing, but do not spin out the wash water until it feels cool to the hands. Adjusting controls by hand—if necessary—can save ironing.

5. Wash only long enough to remove soil.

6. Rinse in water that feels cool, (if it's not automatically done by your machine).

7. Shorten the water extraction time after wash and rinse cycles, (if it's not automatically done by your machine).

8. Set the dryer at low or medium heat.

9. When clothes are nearly dry, tumble them for 10 minutes without heat.

10. Remove immediately and hang.

Many new models of washers and dryers have durable press or wash and wear settings which automatically regulate or "program" short cycles, and desirable temperatures for washing, spinning and drying. This makes hand regulation of controls unnecessary.

Hospital Advisory Board Gets Data On Clinic, Charges

Discussions of the EOC's proposed "Well Baby Clinic," participation of St. Elizabeth Hospital in a comprehensive mental health center program and proposed boosts of $3 to $7.50 per day in room charges were major items at a meeting of the Lay Advisory Board at the hospital.

The hospital staff was instructed to proceed with a study of the need for a computer system at the hospital, and Sister Mary Thomas, administrator, announced the filing of an application for federal funds for establishment of an extended care unit.

The board decided against a $500 study on the computer needs of the hospital in favor of a staff review of the possibilities with the aid of computer experts from local industries and offices.

The computer would be used not only for the complicated compilation of Medicare and other statistics, but also for records needed for the Federal Title 19 program for indigents and state aid records. It would be utilized for determining dosages for unit type drugs, aid in laboratory techniques, as well as determining service charges and accomplishing the hospital payroll.

Establishment of a "store front clinic," also known as a Well Baby Clinic is being contemplated by the county Economic Opportunity Commission with aid being sought from the hospital in its formation. Sister M. Thomas reported the hospital staff met with representatives of EOC and the State Health Department at the hospital, and that a meeting to set policies for the proposed clinic is being arranged.

Local physicians are being contacted to arrange for handling patients at the clinic on a voluntary basis. School nurses have expressed interest in the program, especially since it has been discussed during the federal "Headstart" program.

The board members, following a review of hospital costs, gave their approval for a proposed schedule of increase for room charges to be effective September 1. The rates are subject to final consideration by the hospital's governing board which is to meet Sept. 30.

Judge Delays Trial For Jos. R. Bartylak

Madison county circuit court continued until Oct. 23 the trial of Joseph Bartylak, former Madison county state's attorney, as it opened a large criminal setting Monday at Edwardsville.

Bartylak is charged with official misconduct and 16 counts of theft. He was scheduled to appear before Associate Judge Austin Lewis, and the continuance was granted through his attorney.

Hearings on motions for dismissal of the charges also were delayed by Judge Lewis until after Oct. 2, at the convenience of the court. He ordered that all pending and new motions in the case also would be heard after that date.

Bartylak, who has been residing in the St. Louis area after moving from Collinsville, has been hospitalized frequently for effective Jan. 1, listing ill health as the reason, and was indicted Sunday.

FURNITURE THAT GROWS

FURNITURE THAT "GROWS": A complete wall of Danish-designed storage units and shelves not only solves storage space where two youngsters share, but provides furniture that adjusts to growing. Desks can be placed at any level on the wall rails, part of the furniture's simplicity and utility, as can the cabinets and shelves, to serve from grammar school through college. This wall, designed for two children by Albert Herbert, AID. Photo, courtesy Royal Systems, Inc.

State Capitol NEWS

Gov. Kerner has released $185,928 to eligible Mississippi River Valley communities and governmental units involved in the 1967 spring flood disaster. The funds were reimbursement for expenditures incurred as a result of preventive work to limit flood damage along the river.

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers estimated that damage would have been at least $10 million more without the emergency protection measures taken.

Gov. Kerner ordered the state aid after the federal government had refused to release federal funds to the local governmental units, most with low tax bases and limited public funds available. The state aid came from disaster funds and was granted to the extent allowed by laws and regulations.

Boating Laws in Effect

All the new regulations contained in the Illinois Boat and Safety Act will be strictly enforced Friday, Sept. 15, William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, announced.

Two important provisions require that sailboats over 12 feet long be registered and numbered and that the operator of any water craft must have at least one U. S. Coast Guard approved lifesaving device on board for each passenger.

Boaters not acquainted with the new regulations can learn about them from local marine dealers or county conservation officers.

New Washington Head

Edward D. Heffernan of Oak Lawn has been appointed to head the Washington, D. C. office of the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development.

Heffernan, a 10-year employee at Illinois Bell Telephone Co., replaces Kyran McGrath, who became special assistant to the chairman of the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders. The commission chairman is Governor Kerner.

Book on Sesquicentennial

Two major contributions to the observance of Illinois' 150th anniversary of statehood—an opera and a book—are in the final stages of preparation and will be ready for the opening day of the celebration Sunday, Dec. 3, according to Ralph G. Newman, chairman of the Illinois Sesquicentennial Commission.

The opera is based on the life and work of Gov. John Peter Altgeld who served from 1883 to 1887. Prof. Will Gay Bottje of the Music Department of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, is writing the opera.

"Illinois' Significant Buildings," the Sesquicentennial Commission's architectural book, is ready for the press. Edited by H. Fred Koepfer, associate professor architecture, Circle Campus, University of Illinois, the book will contain 150 examples of historic Illinois' outstanding buildings.

Archers' Season on Gardner

A special deer season for archers from Saturday, Oct. 14, to Sunday, Oct. 22, has been announced by James F. Gillett, refuge manager of the Gardner Division of the Mark Twain National Wildlife Refuge, near Quincy.

A thousand special permits will be issued beginning on Thursday, Sept. 14. Sixty-nine deer were bagged by archers in 1964, including a doe that weighed just under 200 pounds, the largest doe ever killed in Illinois.

Hunters must apply to the Mark Twain National Wildlife Refuge, P. O. Box 225, Quincy, Ill. 62301. The hunter's name, address, and the number of his 1967 Illinois state bow hunting permit must be included in the application.

Several islands in the Mississippi

River total about 4900 acres and comprise the Gardner Division of the Mark Twain National Wildlife Refuge located about 10 miles north of Quincy. The deer herd has increased to the point where control is necessary.

Hunters who obtain permits may scout the area on Friday, Oct. 13, the day before the special season begins. Access to the islands is by private boat and Illinois boating regulations will apply. U. S. Coast Guard life saving devices will be required for each hunter in each boat; boats operating at night must be lighted according to law, and operators of overloaded boats will be subject to arrest.
